Lack of Independence

Harbourside WM Group, Harbourside Wealth Management and its advisers receive commissions for the advice they provide on life insurance, they may also charge asset-based fees on money invested. As such we are unable to use the terms independent, impartial, or unbiased.

Documents you will receive when given advice

You may specify how you would like to give us instructions, for example by telephone, email or other means.

If you decide to obtain personal advice (that considers your objectives, financial situation and needs) you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice (SOA). The SOA contains the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about any benefits/remuneration payable. If you receive further advice you may receive a record of advice. You can request the record of the advice by contacting your adviser.

If you are provided with general advice, you will not receive a Statement or Record of Advice. In these situations, your Adviser will provide a warning that the advice does not take into account your personal objectives, financial situation or needs.

A PDS will be provided if a product recommendation is made. It includes detailed information on the financial product including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable).

Should you engage us to provide ongoing services to you we will ask you to sign an agreement and tell you the fees applicable. If your fees are payable for more than twelve months you will receive a fee disclosure statement outlining the fees you have paid under the arrangement and fees for the coming year. Each year we will ask for your consent if you want to pay our fees from accounts you hold (such as your superfund).

You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will provide you (whether general or personal), and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services.

Your Adviser has an overriding obligation to act in your best interests.

Your Privacy

Your Adviser is required to maintain physical or electronic records of documentation for any financial advice given to you, including information that personally identifies you and/or contains information about you. We will also collect information from you to meet our obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act.

We will generally collect this information directly from you however in some cases we will seek your authority to collect if from other parties such as your accountant or your superannuation fund.

You have the right to not provide personal information to your Adviser. In this case, your Adviser will warn you about the possible consequences and how this may impact on the quality of the advice provided. Additionally, your Adviser may also decline to provide advice if they feel they have insufficient information to proceed.

These records are required to be retained for at least seven years. If you want to access or update your personal information at any time, please let us know. Note there may be a charge for accessing your file.

Throughout the advice process, your personal information may be disclosed to other service providers. These may include:

- Financial product providers
- Financial planning software providers
- Administration and paraplanning service providers
- IT service providers
- Third-parties engaged by us to assist in providing products or services including licensing obligations.

Some services may require disclosure of personal information to service providers outside Australia. The purpose of such disclosure is to facilitate the provision of financial services by Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd and its Advisers. All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that offshore service providers comply with the Privacy Act 1988.

Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd respects your privacy and is committed to protecting and maintaining the security of the personal and financial information you provide us. For detailed information on how we handle your personal information, please see our Privacy Policy which can be viewed at harboursidewm.com.au

Licensee compensation including remuneration, other benefits and potential conflicts of interest

Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd charges your adviser/s a fee for the provision of services under its Australian Financial Services Licence.

Any benefits payable to your adviser or their business will be disclosed to you in writing in advice documents, these are also detailed in your adviser/s profile.

Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd and/or its Advisers may receive non-monetary benefits where:

- The amount is less than $300 and identical or similar benefits are not given on a frequent basis
- The benefit has a genuine education or training purpose (including attendance at conferences) and is relevant to providing financial product advice
- The benefit consists of the provision of information technology software or support and is related to the provision of financial product advice in relation to the financial products issued or sold by the benefit provider

These benefits are disclosed in a register which is available upon request.

Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd and its related companies may receive payments or benefits from product providers in return for granting rights such as being recognised as a sponsor and the right to promote their product and give presentations at conferences and/or professional development training days. Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd may use these payments to pay for costs associated with such conferences, training or professional development days.

If you have a complaint

Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd is a member of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority. If you have a complaint about the service provided to you, you should take the following steps:

1. Firstly, contact your adviser and discuss your complaint. If you are unable to resolve the issue within three working days, please contact Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd using the details at the beginning of this FSG.

How you are charged for services and adviser remuneration

The cost of providing a financial product or service to you will depend on the nature and complexity of the advice, financial product and/or service provided.

Generally, whenever I provide a recommendation for a financial product or service, I will be remunerated through either:

- An initial fee for service
- An ongoing fee for service
- A contribution fee or implementation fee
- Commission payments from product providers where applicable
- A combination of any of the above.

Prior to preparing any advice or providing financial services to you, we will discuss and agree upon all fees that will apply.

Harbourside Wealth Management advice fees and charges

Christopher Heavon-Jones will be paid by Financial Planning Advice Fees, a guide to our minimum fees is outlined in the below table. The amount of the benefit, and how it is calculated will be advised to you during your initial meeting with our Adviser and may change depending on the complexity of the services provided.

All fees are inclusive of GST.

My service fees	Service Fee
Initial consultation	$165
Advice and/or implementation fee for preparation of a Statement of Advice (SOA). Note this may vary depending on the complexity and time taken to prepare the advice documentation. You will be notified of this prior to the work commencing.	Minimum fee is $2,750
Ongoing fee for advice If you elect to pay an ongoing service fee, this includes reporting, advisory services and a review of your financial planning strategy. Note this may vary depending on the complexity of the ongoing requirements, you will be notified prior to the commencement of any service agreement.	Minimum fee is $2,200
Ad hoc advice / Hourly Rate This is applicable if you do not wish to opt into ongoing service fee arrangement, but you require ongoing advice on an ad hoc basis.	Hourly rate of $330 will apply
Execution only service This one off fee is applicable where you instruct us to provide financial service to facilitate buying or selling of a specific financial product for you.	One-off fee of $275 to $385 may apply

How commission and other forms of remuneration/benefits are calculated

Where an insurer pays a commission, this may be up to 60% of your initial premium and then up to 33% of your ongoing premium. For example, if your premium is $1000 your adviser would receive $600 initial and $300 in ongoing commission.

I receive a salary from Harbourside Wealth Management Pty Ltd and may also receive a management fee or distribution of profits from Harbourside Wealth Management Pty Ltd and/or Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd. The amount of my salary is dependent on a range of factors including my experience, skills and professional standards.

The exact amounts of any fees, commissions, bonuses or other incentives received by Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd and me will be disclosed in your SOA or ROA. Fees and commissions are paid to Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd in the first instance who then pay your adviser/s.

Do I have any referral arrangements, conflicts of interest or related parties that affect your advice?

Harbourside and I have referral arrangements in place with a range of specialist businesses as this allows me to refer you to other professionals in areas that I do not practice in.

Should you be referred to us by one of those specialists such as an accountant, mortgage broker or solicitor, that third party may receive a fee for the referral. You will receive more detailed information concerning any referral fee in your SoA or other relevant document.

I do not receive referral fees personally from any party.

Neither your Adviser nor the Licensee have any association or relationship with the issuers of financial products or third-party service providers that might reasonably be expected to be capable of influencing them in the provision of financial services to you.

Harbourside and I own shares in Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd (the AFSL). Harbourside and I are related parties to: Harbourside WM Group Pty Ltd as we are shareholders and controllers of the licensee. This does not affect the advice you receive.
